

culture and Comment Celebration

Please join us for an evening with Saskatchewan Poet Laureate, Don Kerr

Wednesday, June 13, 2012

The Artesian

2627 13th Avenue, Regina

Doors open at 7 p.m.

Photo by Hans Donmasch

Don Kerr is a strong advocate of public libraries and heritage conservation. He is the author of A Book in Every Hand, which celebrates the history of public libraries and chronicles the struggles and triumphs of this world-class, made-in-Saskatchewan achievement. Don taught English at the University of Saskatchewan for forty years. He has written short stories, non-fiction, poetry and produced five plays. Don Kerr has worked for architectural preservation and has served on many organizations dedicated to culture and the arts.

The evening will include an update on the Library Board's proposed redevelopment of Central Library and a public discussion of this plan.

Everyone is welcome to this public meeting sponsored by Friends of the Regina Public Library.

Donations gratefully accepted.

For more information call 535-9570 or go to www.friendsofrpl.ca